

Perinatal Loss Conference 2019

for Health Care Providers

Save the Date - October 24 & 25, 2019

Caring for Saskatchewan Families Coping with Perinatal Loss

Internationally Renowned Expert, Author, and Speaker:
Sherokee Ilse

Host Site and Thursday Night Opportunity for Networking:

- Regina

Wascana Rehabilitation Centre at 2180 23 Ave

Connectivity and Participation by Distance:

- Saskatoon

University of Saskatchewan Health Sciences Building B06

- Prince Albert

SHA Corporate Boardroom at 1521 6th Ave W

- Webex

Available for Saskatchewan Health Authority Employees

Target Audience

Healthcare providers and support people who are caring for families experiencing perinatal loss. This includes physicians, midwives, nurses, social workers, spiritual care providers, bereavement counselors, childbirth educators and doulas.

Registration information will be circulated in the near future. For more information contact:

Leah Thorp at leah.thorp@saskhealthauthority.ca or 306-766-0707

Saskatchewan Health Authority

saskhealthauthority.ca